Feel sometimes that you vote and the politicians still don't give a damn?

Want your vote to mean something?

Like a politician I don't give a damn, but I still want your opinion.

Then here's the poll you must take. You won't change the world but you will have fun.

CIA Agent Chase Brandon recently said 20 years ago he saw a box at headquarters that had in it all that he needed to believe that the 1947 Roswell crash was an extraterrestrial event. Is this disclosure, Brandon selling his new book, or are we again being treated like doormats whose only job is to provide tax money to keep the circus running?

Here's your chance to speak out. (This doesn't mean you no longer have to pay taxes)

People at the CIA can vote too, but no funny games were you vote more than once.
