Just after resigning from the Obama White House John Podesta has tweeted out the following message "1. Finally, my biggest failure of 2014: Once again not securing the #disclosure of the UFO files."

Podesta was the former Chief of Staff for President Bill Clinton and was known as the X-files man in the White House for his strong interest in the UFO issue. He also publicly called for UFO disclosure in 2002 during the Bush administration.

According to the Washington Post that ran the story of Podesta's tweet "late 2013, we wrote that his arrival meant "the Obama presidential library will be inundated — just as the Clinton library in Little Rock has been — with Freedom of Information Act requests, such as this one: for 'e-mails to and from John Podesta, containing the words either, X-files or Area 51."

What Podesta is indirectly saying in his tweet is that he spoke with Obama in 2014 and was unsuccessful in getting the administration to move to ending the extraterrestrial information embargo. This fits in with a public statement Obama made during a March 2012 visit to Roswell where he stated regarding the truth of the 1947 UFO crash "We will keep our secrets here."

I also matches a statement made by Obama to actor Will Smith and his son while on a White House tour that he could "neither confirm nor deny that extraterrestrials had visited the earth."

Podesta now becomes the chief advisor to the Hillary Clinton 2016 presidential campaign. This will make for interesting extraterrestrial politics as Hillary was a key player during the Rockefeller Initiative from 1993-1996 where billionaire Laurance Rockefeller made a move to get the Clinton administration to make a public disclosure of the UFO situation. Hillary's role was 1) all information moving from Rockefeller to Clinton's science advisor and from the advisor to Rockefeller was going through Hillary's First Lady office in the EOB 2) Hillary helped Rockefeller edit a letter on UFO disclosure to the President.
